What 3 words describe you

What is a fun fact about you that man people don't know?

"I love to fly fish and have enjoyed fishing from northern Michigan to Waipounamu, New Zealand, 8930 miles apart."

UPCOMING NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL OD CONFERENCES

ODNetwork Conference is in Orlando, June 8-11 with options to attend virtually.

More information about the conference program, in-person and virtual options. options

The 2022 conference invites practitioners, academicians, and students to explore how the intersection of organizational agility and agile teams can build resilience in the face of increasing complexity. How can OD help address this complexity?

IODA meets in Barcelona, Spain, September 30 - October 2.

Contribute to a Session

IODA's aim for this event is to go with self-organizing principles, i.e low key, participative and community experience. The idea is that everyone contributes to program sessions – either participating in or facilitating sessions. If you have something you'd like to share at the event and would like to lead a session, please get in touch with the organizing committee at events@iodanet.org.
